H. Tassell Passes Away in New Hospital

Harry Tassell, 41-year-old Great War veteran, died in the Lacombe and District Community Hospital on Monday morning after a short attack of pneumonia. Mr. Tassell's death was the first one registered in the newly opened hospital. Living in the Meadowbrook School district, 20 miles northwest of Lacombe, Mr. Tassell was rushed to the hospital by his neighbor, Charlie Berry. He took a sudden relapse Monday morning, which proved fatal.

Mr. Tassell was a resident of this district before the outbreak of the war, living at that time on the old Puffer place west of town. He left shortly before 1914 for England to make his home, where he enlisted in the army and spent four years in the trenches. He returned to this district in April of last year.

Mr. Tassell leaves to mourn his loss his loving wife and two children, both boys, one four years of age and the other nine. Funeral arrangements were held from St. Cyprian's Anglican Church Wednesday afternoon, with Rev. W. E. Herbert officiating. Members of the local branch of the Canadian Legion took charge of the graveside services. The Lacombe Funeral Home handled funeral arrangements.

Palbearers for the funeral were: Martin Koleyak, W. MacKenzie, Stan Sharpe, Claude Rowe, W. Anderson and F. A. Tayles.

Car Skids Into Ravine On Highway

TEES—Nobody was injured in an accident on the Stettler highway, two miles south of Tees, when an automobile slipped off the road into a deep ravine recently. The car, evidently travelling slowly, hit an icy spot and was thrown out of control. It rolled into a clump of willows, which proved to be sufficiently strong enough to hold the vehicle. If the car had been travelling at a high rate of speed, would no doubt have rolled another 75 feet to the bottom of the ravine.

The occupants of the car suffered only superficial bruises. The car itself was not badly damaged. A team of horses, a wrecking car and a number of young people from Tees soon had the car on the road again.

W. R. WOOLGAR ELECTED TRUSTEE OF OXFORD S.D. BENTLEY.—W. R. Woolgar was elected trustee of the Oxford School District at Bentley at the annual meeting held at the Bentley Community Hall on Thursday, Jan. 6. C. F. Dameron, a school trustee for the past 26 years, was defeated by a vote of 80 to 45.

This Week's Thought

A GOOD name, like good will, is got by many actions and lost by one.

Lacombe Loses to Red Deer Tuesday Night 2-0

Red Deer Clinch Top Position in Intermediate Hockey League By Virtue of Victory

LEAGUE STANDING	P.	W.	L.	D.	Pts.
Red Deer	11	8	0	3	19
Lacombe	11	5	5	1	11
Stettler	9	2	5	2	8
Olds	9	0	9	0	0

Lacombe plays host to Red Deer Thursday night in what promises to be one of the hardest fought games of the regular league season. The two teams have played three league games, the first one being a scoreless tie and the other two being won by Red Deer. Although nothing is actually at stake, as Red Deer clinched top position by virtue of their victory Tuesday night, the locals are out to show Red Deer that they have the stuff to win.

LACOMBE DEFEATS OLDS

Lacombe scrambled out of a hard-fought game Saturday night with a 7 to 5 victory over Olds in the last meeting of the two teams in the regular Central Alberta Hockey League Schedule. The Olds team, showing a great improvement in their play since their first game here six weeks ago, outplayed and outscored the Lacombe team in the first period by a score of 4 to 2. Lacombe put on a persistent power play in the second period to score two goals and even the game at four-all.

Kaiser in the Olds nets stopped several sure goals with his outstanding play, as the Lacombe players, surged in on the Olds goalies in four and five-man rushes which had the Olds defence disorganized and the goal-keeper jittery. Three goals came off the sticks of Jimmy Miles, who scored two, and Hal Haverstock, in this final stanza. The Lacombe team showed up well in a contest which was fast and rugged. Goal-getters for Lacombe were: Roberts (2), Penman, Miles (2), Chapman and Haverstock.

RED DEER TAKES GAME

Smart, fast hockey was displayed in a rousing hockey league fixture between Lacombe and Red Deer, played in the southern city on Tuesday night. Red Deer scored a 2-0 victory in the game, which saw close back-checking, stellar defence work and good goal tending featured. The game opened fast with Red Deer boring in on the Lacombe net from the drop of the hat.

Late in the first stanza Dillon suffered from glass in his eyes when Red Deer crew that holed in electric light bulb immediately above his head. As a result of the accident, Fred Jenner, former Lacombe goal tender and now coach of the Red Deer team, took over the net-minding duties.

The break of the game came midway through the second period when Hoppus followed Fred Jenner to the cooler to leave the Lacombe team two men short. With only four men on the ice, Lacombe was no match for a fighting Red Deer crew that holed in five men to sink two counters within five minutes of one another.

Weather of Lacombe and District During Year 1937 Freakish

EDITOR'S NOTE: Through the kind co-operation of our local weatherman, J. S. Cram, a complete but concise report on the weather conditions in Lacombe and district during the year 1937 has been obtained.

BY J. S. CRAM

The season of 1937 was a perpetual paradox, presenting a conglomeration of cold weather, drought, scorching days, soil drifting, off-season rains, hail and frost damage, early snow, late freeze-up and pelting December rain.

In fact, this one season presented almost every difficulty with which farmers usually have to contend in half a dozen years.

Starting out with a minimum of 20 degrees below on New Year's morning, January was a month of steadily cold weather. Minimum temperatures were below zero on all but five nights, and sixteen nights showed readings between 20 and 40 degrees below zero.

In the midst of all this, an eighth of an inch of rain fell on January 3rd.

February brought more cold weather, the mercury sinking below zero on 21 nights. Less than an inch of snow fell during the month, and with a few days of high wind, this all piled up in drifts.

In March, temperatures rose in above normal. The minimum of the month was the highest on record for March, and the mercury dropped that low only once in March 1937. At the end of the month there was scarcely any snow left.

Former Morningside Resident Dies in Vancouver

MORNINGSIDE.—George Porter, former resident of this district, passed away in the General Hospital at Vancouver, on Christmas Day. It was learned here recently that Porter, who had a large circle of friends in this community, awoke in apparent good health on Christmas morning, but around noon he was taken suddenly ill and rushed to the hospital, where he died at 7 o'clock that night.

The deceased 57 years of age, lived in Morningside around 1936 with his brother, Walter, and bought the general store here, which they operated in partnership for 10 years. By their quiet, unassuming ways, the brothers won for themselves a host of friends in the district.

Last April, the two brothers were forced to retire from business on account of ill health. They travelled to Vancouver, where they set up their home.

The deceased was under a doctor's care for the major part of the time. Walter, however, showed a great improvement in health while in Toronto at the time of his brother's death.

The funeral was held in Vancouver on January 3 and interment was made at the Mount View cemetery. The deepest sympathy is extended to the family in their great loss.

WEDDING DANCE AT JOFFRE

JOFFRE.—Mr. and Mrs. Ed Underdahl and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Perkins entertained close to 200 residents of this and surrounding districts at a wedding reception held in Joffre Hall last Friday.

The newlyweds acted as hosts at the big dance.

Dancing, which started at 9 o'clock, was in full swing in the morning, with the local Joffre orchestra still going strong. A dainty lunch was served to the guests at 12:30.

Merits Post

With the excellent facilities for giving instruction and for housing and feeding the young men and women, the agricultural short course at Lacombe, under the Dominion-Provincial Youth Training Program, is proving an even greater success than was expected. For this reason, those on charge would like to see as many as possible profit by this new method of agricultural education.

The six instructors are all men and women born and brought up on farms. They have had the advantage of a University education, have had wide practical experience with farm problems, and have had considerable experience in teaching. With livestock, poultry, grains, grasses and horticultural material available from the Experimental Station, the instructors are every day giving practical lessons which students can put into practice as they return to their homes.

No Fees Charged

There are no fees for the course and no room charges, and students may enter at any time. The only expense is for transportation to and from Lacombe, where necessary, and contribution to the dining room supplies of butter, eggs, poultry, vegetables or meat to help provide three good meals a day for the students. Sufficient beds are now available, where possible students should bring mattresses, and each student must provide his or her own bedding, towels and soap. The girls all sleep in the pavilion and the boys are billeted in town.

New students are coming in every day. Those who are here are learning a great deal, and having a thoroughly good time. Come in, if only for a few days, and you will learn what to plan for next year. There is room for an additional 50 students.

The course will close on Jan. 21, with a concert and dance, to which all friends and parents of the students are especially invited.

Unmistakable Improvement

In a review of business conditions during the first 11 months of 1937, as compared with 1936, the release of a report by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, just out, is very encouraging, and shows unmistakable improvement in the economic situation of Canada. Mineral and forestry activity are among the bright spots of business. The report makes refreshing reading, and offsets to some extent the decline in agricultural production, owing to drought conditions. Happily this district was not affected in the latter sense. The report states:

"Despite the deflation in speculative factors toward the close of the year, 1937 will rank high in the records of Canadian economic activity. Productive operations as measured by the index of the physical volume of business were 10 per cent greater than in the first 11 months of 1936.

"Mineral production was much greater than in 1936, which up to that time was a record year. Production of gold, silver, copper, lead and nickel all showed gains. The industry employed more men, paid more in salaries and wages and dividends, spent more for supplies and equipment and used more electric power than in any previous year.

"Operations in the forestry group were expanded greatly. Production of newsprint reached a new high point in history, having been not far from the practical limit of capacity. Production in the first 11 months was a gain of nearly 16 per cent over the same period of 1936.

"The forestry industry as one of the largest employers of labor and logging recorded a gain of 36.5 per cent, with saw-milling and paper industries showing advances of 11 per cent and 36 per cent, respectively.

"Manufacturing operations gathered momentum during the year, the output having been practically equivalent to that of 1929. The gain over the preceding year was 9.6 per cent. Iron and steel industries, reflecting revival in the domestic demand for industrial equipment and durable goods, showed further gains over the first 11 months of 1936. Recovery of the steel industry from the low levels of the early part of 1933 was one of the striking features of the past five years.

"Automobile and allied industries were favored by the marked gain in purchasing power of the public during 1937. Output of motor cars in the first 11 months at 186,348 recorded a gain of 26 per cent. Imports of crude petroleum were 9.5 per cent greater, while the domestic production was tripled in 1937.

"New business obtained by the construction industry was more than 36 per cent greater than in the preceding year.

"In industries other than agriculture, during the last quarter of 1937, there were more people at work in Canada than at any other time during the period of observation from 1921 to the present except for two or three months of 1929."

Congratulations

One frequently hears about the "local girl makes good," especially in the movies, but seldom does it come in reality to the lot of the "home town." Lacombe and district can therefore be proud of the accomplishments of Miss Margaret Reed, who received her public and high school training in Lacombe, and who in hospital circles has been prominently mentioned for her efficiency, in the sister dominion of South Africa, where she went on the nurses' exchange inauguration some two years ago.

The Western Globe wishes to compliment this young lady on her achievements, and congratulates her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Reed, respected old-timers, who still reside just outside of town.

Through the Eyes of a Country Woman

By BRIDGET

In this enlightened Province it seems extraordinary that mass opinion has not demanded some institution, or public service, along the lines of The Public Trustee of London, England; more especially as many confess to a complete ignorance concerning wills, and the carrying out of their provisions. Of course, it was quite a few years ago that I was "an fall" with the workings of the "P.T. Office" (as we affectionately used to call it), and it must have undergone some revision and modernizing since then. But the idea underlying the inception of the service offered by a Public Trustee is, and always will be, exactly the same. The idea originated in order to protect people from themselves, from high law costs, and fraudulent brokers and lawyers. Lack of knowledge in small cases, in compensation cases, or in testacy cases, often caused someone (probably from the highest motives) to liquidate all the resources of the estate through trying to settle these affairs the cheapest way, or by themselves without legal advice. At first the legal profession were skeptical of the whole business, thinking it was when at them and their fees, but when a large number were employed in the office, they soon saw the benefits that would accrue to all in need of this sort of service.

A special Act of Parliament was passed in 1910, whereby such an office was to be set up, and tried for a certain number of years, and, if successful, be established as one of the services rendered by the Government; if the idea failed, the office was to be discontinued.

Mr. (later Sir) Charles John Stewart collected some fine brains, sound solicitors, able organizers, accountants and bookkeepers and launched the scheme in a few scattered rooms in Lincoln's Inn. By 1916, it had been such a success that the whole staff (with a few exceptions) was established as Civil Servants, and housed in a fine new building specially built for it on Kingsway. To make clear its usefulness, we must examine its aims. Shortly, to operate a reliable trustee service on a non-profit-making basis (backed by the resources of the Government); to take care of the beneficiaries of small estates; to obtain probate (or letters of administration if intestate); to keep down to the minimum necessary law costs, and to invest such monies as accrued from these activities as advantageously as possible and distribute such monies to those entitled to them. The fees were set as low as possible compatible with smooth and efficient handling. A reduction was made when it was fully proved how little it was possible to operate on. The fees were, (a) an acceptance fee based on the actual capital value of the estate at the time of its being taken over (in very small cases there was a minimum charge); (b) investment fees, which were mainly taken care of by the broker sharing his commission with the P.T.; (c) direct or indirect income fee—1, for distributing income direct; 2, for being responsible that the banks dealt with distribution of income, and (d) distribution fee when the case was wound up. Where the estate warranted it, outside solicitors were employed, and counsel's opinion taken where deemed absolutely necessary.

The benefits from this Official, or Public Trustee, cannot be too highly estimated. In one building were collected disinterested and experienced solicitors, investment brokers, chartered accountants, welfare workers, and surveyors. Its comprehensive services were wide powers, however, somewhat of a mistake, as people not in need of this service took full advantage of it. To give one example, the P.T. was made co-executor in a $90,000 estate, and there were many other huge settlements and trusts that meant a mountain of work and supervision. Since that time some of the services have been cut down, but I do not feel that that would be necessary if the estates, settlements and trusts were limited to those of moderate size.

In small compensation cases, street accidents and the like, the Courts invariably ordered the money to be paid to the P.T. for administration, thus ensuring the greatest possible benefit to the injured one. In the case of a man sentenced to prison, who had some life money to take care of his family, the P.T. would deal with this, and would see the family looked after as far as the means allowed. A widow, whose husband died testate, and with no idea of how to set in motion the machinery of the law, could apply to the P.T. to take out letters of administration, and leave it all to him. In some cases the P.T. would have to deal with minors, and their education, and fit them for life. For there was a kindly welfare worker, who visited and kept in touch with them.

In cases of public money subscribed to help those involved in national disasters, the Public Trustee distributed the money, and looked after those involved and their dependents. The Mesdames disaster of 1935, the Titanic disaster, the sinking of the Lusitania, the Scott Antarctic Expedition and many others were dealt with by the Public Trustee, ensuring the subscribers of the money that the utmost good would be extracted from their donations.

With a Trustee of this sort, there is no fear of loss of money by speculative investment. In fact, the benefits are too numerous to mention in one short article. Don't you think the rural areas, and many others, would benefit very materially from a service such as this? The head of the family could feel secure in the knowledge that all possible would still be done for his family, if anything should happen to him.

In 1937 Alberta ranked second among all Canadian provinces in total value of field crops produced, Ontario leading with $150,367,000, of wealth in field crops during the current year.

"We have not really set out upon the road to sure and lasting recovery until something has been done to relieve industry and trade of the forward brake which could not help but retard their forward movement."—Sir Edward Beatty.

SCHOOL MATTERS

Editor, Western Globe:
Dear Sir,—This is the season of annual meetings of electors and ratepayers of the many schools of this province.

As we all know, many changes are taking place in the field of education now-a-days, and it behooves us as parents to pay a good deal of attention to these matters; more attention than many of us do pay to such things very often until it is too late, and we find ourselves living under legislation to which we object very strongly.

The School Trustees of this province have an organization, the Alberta School Trustees' Association, which endeavors to represent them through an Annual Convention, and later by the submission to the proper quarters of the findings of that convention.

Much pressure can be brought to bear on officials by organizations that are truly representative. Let me, as a School Trustee, and a member of the A.S.T.A. Board, urge on every School District the advisability of joining that body and of being represented at their convention in Calgary next month. We know that money is tight, but I believe that money spent in voting the ideas of the people, (which often are NOT the ideas of their legislators) is well spent.

Yours sincerely,
H. ERNEST HEATH.

Editor, Western Globe:

Sir—I do not know who Mr. Dyke is, or what his other qualifications are but, by his criticism of Mr. Aberhart's entirely accurate answer to Senator Griesbach, he proves that in this respect his knowledge is conspicuous by its absence.

Mr. Dyke asserts that Credit (money), and its creation and destruction, by the banks is sanctioned, and controlled by parliament.

As a member of that parliament, and of its Select Standing Committee of Banking and Commerce, I say that banks are not, and never have been, controlled by parliament as to their creation of credit. The very opposite is true.

The Rt. Hon. Mr. King said in 1935 "Canada is faced with a great battle between the Money Power and the people, a battle which will be waged in the new parliament. I plead for a sweeping victory to carry out my policy of public control of currency and credit. Until the control of currency and credit is restored to the government, all talk of the sovereignty of parliament and democracy is idle and futile."

To restore means to return what is lost or stolen. The creation of money is, and always has been, a prerogative of the Crown. The banks have been granted the right to issue a certain number of notes. Their power to create, and destroy credit is the amount of 95 per cent of our money is an usurpation, by them of the sovereignty of parliament. It has never been granted to them, and could not have been—without a breach of the constitution. That is why they, and their tools—the People's League and its dupes, and the people, are making a great fight to credit (money). "Canada is faced with a great fight between the Money Power and the People." That fight is being waged, not in Ottawa, but in Alberta.—NORMAN JACQUES.

Lower License Fees Advocated

Lower car licenses for Alberta motorists were advocated when the annual meeting of the Alberta Motor Association was held recently at Calgary.

The general trend at present is to lower the license schedule, so that the license is for registration rather than revenue or taxation purposes. Ontario has set the pace for other provinces in respect to license reductions. Depending upon the number of cylinders, Ontario has reduced licenses on the average by 85 per cent, thus saving millions of dollars to the car owners of that province.

Various registration fees for change in ownership and for motor cycles were reduced by the Ontario government, which also cut the licenses for commercial motor vehicles by 25 per cent.

Ontario also has changed its car license year so that it coincides with the fiscal year, which ends on March 31. The change has already been made by Alberta, largely due to the representations of the A.M.A.

With other provinces reducing the Ontario government is strongly hoping that Alberta will take similar action. Requests for lower license fees have been made by car license year so that it coincides with the fiscal year, which ends on March 31. Janet Gaynor Appears at Avalon Theatre

Janet Gaynor, with amber hair, a wail from Arizona in Hollywood for a job, is the chief unusuality in "A Star Is Born," opening at the Avalon Thursday night for three nights. It is her first film in color, and since the dumb-drama days of "Street Angel," her first big poverty-struggle picture.

Not so easy for a film star to play a job-quester on the 1-to-1000 line in Hollywood; or for Frederic March to play a film idol on the skirts through drink, reclaimed by love of the Cinderella whom he lures from the bread-line to blaring facade, marriage.

Spruceville

(From Our Own Correspondent)

SPRUCEVILLE.—Please note that the Spruceville School annual meeting will be held in the school on Saturday, Jan. 15, and not in the hall as stated in this column last week.

Everyone in the Spruceville district will be very grieved to hear that Mrs. Walker is in the Bentley Hospital, very ill. She has been ailing for quite a while and on Thursday the doctors advised her removal to hospital. The latest reports are encouraging.

The annual meeting of the Woody Nook School ratepayers was not very largely attended. The retiring trustee, Wm. Swan, who is now nearly recovered from an attack of pneumonia, was re-elected. The larger school unit was discussed at length and other matters concerning the running of this large school fully thrashed out. A resolution was drafted to be sent to the Alberta School Trustees' Convention.

We are sorry not to be able to report any progress yet in Mr. Peck's condition. He has been fighting pneumonia for nine days now. Our sympathy is extended to Mrs. Peck in her trouble.

Mrs. L. I. Young entertained Mr. and Mrs. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Proufoot and Mr. and Mrs. Freshman last Friday night.

Mrs. O. S. Young entertained Mr. and Mrs. Southward Sunday.

Blackfalds

(From Our Own Correspondent)

BLACKFALDS.—Mr. Farewell suffered a nasty accident recently. He was going up-hill with a rack on a sleigh when suddenly the rack was left behind owing to a sudden spurt on the part of the horses. Mr. Farewell was taken unaware and the resulting confusion he fell and injured his back rather painfully.

He was soon able to get around, however, and now seems none the worse for the incident.

Fred Miller also hurt himself recently when he slipped while chasing some horses and got his leg badly hurt. One of the Ferguson boys assisted him to the farm work for a time. He is now progressing well.

Mr. Waghorn also is among those reported on the accident list. While cutting down some trees he hit himself on the foot and cut through his rubber shoe and hose, injuring his toe somewhat. Fortunately, the injury was not a serious one.

We omitted to mention that Stan, Farewell was home for Christmas from his school near Coronation and was able to step in and take over his father's work when he was injured. Bob Farewell spent his Christmas in Coronation.

Sadie Patterson underwent an appendicitis operation last Monday and for a day after was sorely troubled with an attack of hiccoughs, which caused her much pain. However, she is now doing well and is expected home this week.

Visitor From Calgary
Miss Edith Hess came home from Calgary last week-end and left to return to her work at the Sanitarium on Monday of this week.

Frank Warren has gone to work with Mr. Riis.
Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sather and family, also Miss Helen Farewell, left for the Peace River last week.

Owing to the small attendance, the annual meeting of the local United Church Congregation was not held last Sunday as arranged—it is hoped to hold it at a later date.

The W.W. met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Wade, with a fair attendance. It was arranged to hold a few whist drives during the winter and plans to stage a play before spring operations commence were discussed. The members also planned a drive for new members, which is now under way.

Harold Huespeilheuser was the fortunate winner of a quilt made by Mrs. Riis and raffled by the Associated U.F.W.A. recently. The Facklers were also lucky in winning a radio raffled by the Car-

Nazi Tells All

Pictured at New York is Kurt Ludecke, Hitler's first envoy to Italy and former head of the National Socialist Press Bureau in Washington, who has revealed he attempted to spread Nazism in Canada and the United States before becoming a disillusioned exile from Germany. Ludecke's efforts in Canada on behalf of Hitler were revealed in a book he published under the title "I Knew Hitler." Ludecke worked mainly through lectures which he gave in Toronto and Montreal among other cities and attempted to interest influential persons in Nazism. He was later thrown into prison for his opposition to Josef Goebbels, Reich propaganda minister, escaping to the U.S. in 1934.

After about two weeks of mild weather, a severe blizzard hit us on Monday and we are now looking forward to some more winter. During the mild spell, good use has been made of the local rink, especially by the children.

Many local residents have had their next year's supply of wood put up during the mild spell and Mr. Moir has also had his sawed.

Clive

(From Our Own Correspondent)

CLIVE.—Baling straw is the order of the day in this locality. Several farmers are loading cars at Clive. Prices go as high as $1.10 in the stack for the straw. The cars are being billed to Saskatchewan.

We understand there is to be a large building erected on the lots opposite the lumber yard, the front of which will be used for a filling station and the balance to be used to house the John Deere Machine Agency. Tom Rodney, a farmer north of town, and Les Pears, the local agent, will be in charge.

Mrs. H. A. Heild was taken to the Lacombe Hospital suffering from a severe attack of appendicitis. She underwent an operation and is progressing favorably. We hope for a speedy recovery.

Plenty of Snow Flying
The snow was flying high on Monday last as we experienced the nearest thing to a blizzard we have had this winter. However, cars are getting through with difficulty, but will be going strong again.

The Clive hockey team has taken over the management of the rink for the balance of the season and are installing another string of lights so as to be able to play hockey at night.

A carnival will be held in the skating rink on Saturday evening, Jan. 15. Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes. Broom-ball, races and all that goes to constitute a carnival will be engaged in.

Grain is moving a little more freely at late owing to the rise in price.
John Cline of Tees is spending a few days in town visiting old friends.

WOMEN AND NEWSPAPERS

The Printer's Devil down at the Black Diamond Press Office has come to the conclusion that women are like newspapers, because—they have forms—they are bold face type—they always have the last word—back numbers are not in demand—they have a great deal of influence—they are well worth looking over—you can't believe everything they say—they carry the news wherever they go—usually tell it—they are never afraid to speak their own minds—they are much thinner than they used to be—every man should have one of his own and not borrow his neighbor's.

Dismounted Mounties

There always has been and always will be something thrilling about a masterful man on a mounted horse.

So it is, with a slight sinking feeling around the heart, that we read that henceforth only 200 of Canada's far-famed 3273 "Mounties" will be mounted. That is, there will only be about that many mounted on horses.

Some will mount motorcycles, others will mount planes and take to the airways, while still others will drive high-powered motor boats on the waterways. Oh, well, the mounties may have dismounted but they will undoubtedly rise to even greater heights of fame as they master the new devices of crime detection and use more modern means of locomotion.

TEES.—The largest turnout of dancers since the free dance last Spring showed up for the big hop on the night of Jan. 5. Talk about crowded dance floors, this one had anything beat! A hall was called just before the supper wait, when everyone was called to order and a little token of esteem was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cunningham, in honor of having spent 25 years of married bliss together. The presents included a silver tea service from friends in the district, also a utility dish, a silver-pyrex casserole from the U.F.W.A. and Hall Board, and a silver cake stand from Miss Elsie and Mr. Bob Cunningham.

The presentation of the district presents was made by the scribe, who did his best to say something appropriate, but words failed to materialize. The utility dish mentioned above has many uses, for instance, it can be worn for a hat, for a coffee mug, for a chafing dish and many other things. Most people have used it for one purpose only for years but now that a demonstration has been given, no doubt many will follow suit.

Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves until about four o'clock in the morning, when some started to wend their way home; shortly after this the dance broke up in general, just in time to do the milking.

The curling boys are doing a little better for recruits this year. Nine are taking in the little local bonspiel at Alta, whereas last year only four took it in, and at

Governments Present Their Factums To Supreme Court

By T. B. WINDROSS

EDMONTON.—The battle for the freedom of the press in Alberta and for the maintenance of Canada's integrity as a united nation is being waged in Ottawa this week as counsel for the Aberhart Government, the Dominion of Canada, newspapers and the banks present their arguments on disputed legislation and Dominion authority to the red-robed justices of the Supreme Court of Canada.

The hearings began on Monday, Jan. 10. Whatever the decisions of the Supreme Court of Canada, the judgments will be appealed to the Privy Council, that is, the judicial committee of the Imperial Privy Council, the final umpire of law in the Empire. For final verdicts in order to remove the questions from future dispute.

Col. J. L. Ralston, K.C., former Minister of National Defence, is one of the leading lawyers in Canada. He is leading the fight on behalf of Alberta newspapers against the so-called "Accurate News and Information Act," which was passed by the Alberta legislative assembly last October.

Other points in dispute being argued before the Supreme Court of the nation this week are the right of the Dominion to disallow provincial legislation, such as was done with three Alberta acts last August.

The authority of the Lieutenant-Governor of Alberta to reserve assent on provincial legislation, as Hon. J. C. Bowen did with the three Alberta bills in October.

The legality of the "Credit of Alberta Regulations Act," and of "Act Respecting Taxation of Banks," these two bills having been held up, along with the press restriction bill, through the that time it was hard to get them out. It is not really a bonspiel, but a way of getting more prospects interested in the game. We expect great things to report next week as the boys are well split up. Therefore, some of them should get into the silver. Next week the worst might be known. The scribe is quite worried as to how he can keep up with the leaders and still take in the big bonspiel at Lacombe Friday night. If the other three are good players there is a chance that he may not be through by that time and that would be a shame, because he does need to eat.

Mrs. Ferny Harris has had a few days rest at the Lacombe Hospital, trying out the new beds and nurses.

One dark night, a horse that got loose in the barn took a kick at Alex Sim, right in the bread basket, and knocked him several feet through the open door. Although wounded for several minutes, Alex seems none the worse for the whack.

Skating Party Held
A skating and birthday party was held Friday night by Miss Elsie Branner at her home east of town. Over sixty guests attended and report a wonderful time, both on the ice and at the home.

Cyril Colebrook and Johnnie Ballard have commenced the ice harvest from Percy Walter's lake. A very good clear, thick ice—the best for two or three years.

Mr. Newton bought a baby carriage, so there is one main in Tees who is looking forward to Spring.

SALES TAX OF TEXAS OIL TOTALS 100%

As a special target for taxation the oil industry has surely been made the golden egg for government treasuries.

In the great producing fields of the southern United States oil production is now taxed so heavily that the oil industry pays 42.4 per cent of all taxes levied by state and local governments, although its property constitutes only 19 per cent of the total value of taxable properties within a given area.

In 36 counties in Texas where intensive oil development is under way, 60 per cent of all local ad valorem taxes are collected from oil. In 22 of the largest oil producing states, the ad valorem taxes paid by oil operators range from 50 to 90 per cent of the total.

Moreover, the Texas oil industry, and for that matter in some other fields, bears a sales tax of more than 100 per cent of the retail value of crude oil. No gift prophecy is needed to foretell that such enormous burdens must react against the industry. It is not fair to so flagrantly discriminate against one industry by placing upon it such an enormous burden of taxes in a form not now generally applied to other industries.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
At all Christian Science churches next Sunday, the subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Life." The following is one of the Scriptural quotations contained in the Lesson-Sermon: "For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and show unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us" (1 John 1:2). One of the corrective passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, is as follows (page 289): "Because Life is God, Life must be eternal, self-existent. Life is the everlasting 1 A.M. the Being who was and is and shall be, whom nothing can erase."

Mirror Hockey Team Wins One, Ties One

MIRROR.—Alix and Mirror Junior teams battled through 10 minutes of overtime to a 4-4 tie here in a thrilling game on Tuesday night of last week. Mirror scored the first goal on a clever play by A. Eisner in the first stanza, but the Alix boys came back fast to ram in two counters in the second period, both goals coming from the stick of Ken Smith.

Mirror defeated Bashaw by a score of 3-2 in a closely played game here Thursday night. Goal getters for the local aggregation were A. Eisner, (two), and Chown and A. Claus scored both counters for Bashaw.

Governments Present Their Facts To Supreme Court

freedom of the press in the B.N.A. Act, but that in that act it is stated specifically that any authority not definitely allotted by the act rests with the Dominion Parliament. Therefore, the Dominion government, through the press, and newspaper censorship or restriction of any kind, is outside the authority and jurisdiction of any provincial legislature, government (or Social Credit Board).

The newspapers' own action showed that newspapers are in the main inter-provincial; they receive and publish news from many quarters, foreign as well as domestic; their news sources are many, varied, and inter-provincial; their circulations are similarly scattered. In the case of daily newspapers associated with the Canadian Press, the co-operative news-gathering and distributing organization of which all daily papers in the Dominion are members, any restriction of any news source would militate against free expression of opinion not only within Alberta but throughout Canada, it was shown.

Clash with Libel Acts
It was submitted that the authority given to the Social Credit Board by the bill to demand publication of detailed statements by the board to "correct" or "amplify" previously published statements, clashed with the present Libel acts of Federal criminal law, which provides for prosecution or correction of any false statement against the public interest, while the closure of any news source, or the suspension of publication of any Alberta newspaper, under the authority given the government in the bill, would have inter-provincial effects and therefore was a matter within the jurisdiction of the Federal Parliament.

The press bill as passed by the Alberta legislature was without significance other than as a measure for promoting Social Credit, the Dominion Government submission said.

The argument continued: "The authority that can impose such restriction on the freedom of the press, a freedom which is in the legal sense now complete, can impose any restriction."
The Alberta Government's submissions claimed that the power of the Dominion to disallow provincial legislation and of the Lieutenant-Governor to reserve assent to provincial bills had lapsed; and that the three bills in dispute were all within the jurisdiction of the provincial legislature because: the credit regulation bill did not refer to banking within the meaning of the B.N.A. Act in any particular; the bank taxation bill was of the same type as one which had been held good in Quebec with the added provision that it provided for taxation of reserves as well as of capital; and that the press bill violated no provision of the B.N.A. Act or any other Federal statute.

MAJOR BOWEN'S AMATEURS WILL BE SEEN TONIGHT

Radio fans everywhere know the popularity of Major Bowen's Amateur Hour on the radio, and this famous broadcast will be seen and heard tonight (Thursday, Jan. 13) at a showing of the Chrysler and Plymouth Motor Cars free talking pictures at the Empress Hotel, Lacombe. Two shows will be given, one at 8:30 p.m., and another at 10 p.m., which should be well worth seeing. The free show is sponsored by MacLean Mack Motors Ltd., local dealers for these popular cars.

Does Crime Pay? Subject of Address

On his fourth cross-Canada tour, "Silent Bill" Bible, ex-outlaw and well-known radio speaker and lecturer on crime, will present his illustrated address to the people of Lacombe and District in the Avalon Theatre next Sunday night, Jan. 16, at 8:30 p.m.

As the ring-leader of the notorious Bible Brothers, following his release from reform school, he was committed to a life sentence and remained within the grey walls of Sing Sing for 18 years. Through his association with criminals and his familiarity with penology, Mr. Bible is well able to give vivid and memorable portrayals of the future which lies ahead of the youth of today that "Goes wrong." It is to prevent this that his address, "Does Crime Pay?" is being presented throughout Canada.

"Silent Bill" has received much publicity from his other addresses and undoubtedly his talk will have something in it for everyone. A silver collection is the admission.

CONFESSES TO TWELVE-YEAR-OLD MURDER

The slayer of Fred Miller, brother of J. C. Miller of Lacombe, has been apprehended in Timmins, Ont. It was reported in the daily papers this week.
Fred Miller was murdered in Sacramento, California, on Aug. 30, 1925, at a time when his brother Charlie was in Canada. A man identifying himself as Andrew Moore admitted slaying a man in Sacramento more than 12 years ago. Police of both Canada and the U.S.A. are checking the murder case.

In recent years Canada has increased shipment of bacon to England.
